

Solutions – Mid-Semester Test (SE ZG509)

Q1. Stakeholder Map (Interest/Influence Matrix)

- Quadrant 1 – High Interest, High Influence (Manage Closely): Mark (CIO, Tritan Corp), Alan (CEO, CloudSync), Sophia (VP Customer Success – Americas).
- Quadrant 2 – High Influence, Low Interest (Keep Satisfied): Ravi (Director, Product Management).
- Quadrant 3 – High Interest, Low Influence (Keep Informed): David (Factory Manager, Tritan), Priya (Technical Lead).
- Quadrant 4 – Low Interest, Low Influence (Monitor): Robert (VP Customer Success – EMEA), Anuj (Principal Architect).

Q2. Persona Analysis

Mark (CIO, Tritan Corp)

- Motivation: Ensure IT stability, compliance, smooth manufacturing ops.
- Goals: Deliver reliable systems, support digital transformation, meet audit requirements.
- Everyday Activities: Review IT escalations, liaise with factory managers, update Tritan CEO.
- Fears: Audit failures, reputation loss within Tritan, losing internal credibility.
- Frustrations: Vendor reliability issues, costly downtime, pressure from factory managers.

Robert (VP Customer Success – EMEA, CloudSync)

- Motivation: Drive adoption of new AI features, secure renewals in Europe.
- Goals: Meet sales/renewal targets, maintain customer trust, push roadmap narrative.
- Everyday Activities: Customer calls, product demos, contract negotiations.
- Fears: Delayed AI roadmap weakening competitive advantage, dissatisfied EU customers.
- Frustrations: Engineering prioritization toward Tritan fix delaying EU sales opportunities.

Q3. Estimation of Losses

- Operational Losses: $10 \text{ factories} \times $50,000/\text{day} = $500,000/\text{day}$. For 21 days → $10.5M.
- Regulatory Losses: $5 \text{ missing reports} \times $200,000 \text{ each} = $1\text{M}$.
- Total Potential Loss = $11.5M.
- Assumptions: Failures persist for 21 days; no mitigation; maximum fines applied.
- Intangible Risks: Reputation damage, weakened contracts, reduced CIO credibility.

Q4. Impact of Prioritizing Tritan's Fix over AI Features

- Tritan Corp: Gains stability, avoids penalties, restores trust.
- Alan (CEO, CloudSync): Protects reputation but delays AI roadmap.
- Ravi (Product Management): Must realign roadmap priorities.
- Robert (VP EMEA): Faces delays in AI rollout, EU renewals risk.
- Sophia (Customer Success US): Strengthens relationship with Tritan.
- Priya (Tech Lead): Extra workload, risk of burnout.
- Financial Sector Customers: Delay in promised AI features.
